

THE LOUDOUN COUNTY GOVERNMENT
AND THE LEONARD W. KIDD MEMORIAL
AMERICAN LEGION POST 2001, ASHBURN, VIRGINIA

PROUDLY PRESENT THE 4TH ANNUAL

Loudoun Salute to Military, Veterans & Families

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 2017 – OPEN FROM 10:30 AM TO 4:00PM

SALUTE ENTERTAINMENT PROGRAM BEGINS AT 1200

STONE BRIDGE HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
43100 HAY ROAD, ASHBURN, VIRGINIA

★ VETERANS ★

Start new, or begin resolving prior, VA claims.

Service Officers from American Legion, VFW and other Veteran Services Organizations will be available to help Active Duty, Veterans and their families.

Sign up for, or check, your VA Benefits status on the spot.

A Veterans Administration Benefits direct computer network team will walk you through it.

Visit with numerous Veteran Services & Information Providers displaying specialties, programs and products available to assist Veterans and family members.

At 12:00 noon, enjoy a musical salute by the John Champe High School string orchestra, a choral salute by children of Hillside Elementary School choir, and a reading of the county-wide high school competition-winning essay by the winning writer!

Phyllis Randall, Chair, and Ralph Buona, Vice-Chair of Loudoun County's Board of Supervisors will welcome you and introduce our Keynote Speaker:

Lester L. Lyles, General, United States Air Force (retired), former Vice Chief of Staff of the USAF and current Chairman of the Board, USAA.

Additionally, view a gallery of posters saluting our Armed Forces created by Loudoun County schools' elementary and middle school students!

Some of our Partners and Programs

